And so obviously, the accumulating of knowledge must precede the application of that knowledge and this is made possible by God’s all-sufficient Word! When human viewpoint is combined with divine viewpoint, it’s neutralized, making for no real solution at all. If David’s self-image came from his father’s opinion of him, he wouldn’t have been the man he became; instead, his self-image was derived from the Scriptures and that caused him to adopt God’s view of himself and he whole-heartedly believed it because he trusted God!
