

John # 17

“Behold The Lamb”

John 1:28

Question: Why did God send John to the desert?

It is true that God provides teachers for the flock, the hungry, positive and motivated flock.

The most difficult people to reach with God’s message of grace are the proud religious people.

Just as we are called to be separate from the ways of the world; of equal value is the concept of separation from the religious and their religion.

Question: Where did John baptize?

Question: Where then does John get his authority?

Most of us are pleased to name our Savior when it’s convenient and when it benefits us to hear our name mentioned with His.

And yet too often we remain silent when it would cost us to name Him.

But not John the Baptist who emphatically stated: “The straps of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie” implying; because I’m unfit to do so.

John 3:27 To this John replied, A person can receive only what is given them from Heaven.

Question: Why did John baptize?

In God’s plan, divine good is the only acceptable production and He (God) provides everything for it by way of His divine operating assets.
