

John 261 “So, You’re In The Fishing Business; Tell Me About It”

John 16:13-22; 1st Corinthians 1:20-23, 26-29; 1st Thessalonians 1:4-5; 2:1-4, 9-11

The history of evangelism;

1. The Divine Plan; 2. The Family Plan; 3. The National Plan; 4. The Royal Family Plan.

Modern man is over-impressed with his own achievements and conceived capabilities.

Proper motivation plus preparedness causes us to overcome hardships, handicaps and pressures so that we can reach those who are positive toward God’s amazing Gospel of grace.

A holy or experientially sanctified life has nothing to do with our salvation but a lot to do with our witness of the life for the salvation of others because they are watching us.

The average church today consists of a mild-mannered minister standing before a group of mild-mannered people, trying to get them to become even more mild-mannered!

God’s grace finds a way to take people that the world classifies as irredeemable and make remarkable spiritual heroes out of them!

The function of the Holy Spirit is to communicate the grace plan of God the Father through the mind of His Son Jesus Christ as dictated to and recorded by the eyewitnesses of His Son’s glory.

The Scriptures were not written by mindless robots or even human beings in a trance-like state; they were written by normal average people like us through the power and with the guidance of God the Holy Spirit.
