

John 267 “Jesus Says, It’s All About Being In Me” John 16:33

Believers in Jesus Christ are never legitimately lonely because just as God the Father was always with the Lord Jesus, the Good Shepherd,

He forever remains with those in His flock.

Jesus not only knew the principle that His Father was with Him as He promised He would be but He also intimately knew from His experience that His Father would never leave Him with only one three-hour exception when He took our place.

Our readiness for Heaven is found in Christ alone.

The disciples will quickly learn that while they’re dejected and afraid, their Lord is courageously elated and victorious because He’s fulfilling His Father’s will in spite of all opposition!

The Lord is saying God’s grace has found a way to take up the slack for any shortcomings you might have, so keep on having confidence in Me and not yourselves or any other people or humanly devised systems.

The question is: Why should the last generation of the Church Age experience tribulation related to mass judgment from the throne of the Lamb, when no generation in human history ever experienced tribulation from the throne of the Lamb?

Every Christian is in the spiritual warfare battle and there are no safe areas or neutral corners in which to call time-out.

It’s like the man who dies a destitute struggling pauper on his Texas farm which later after his death becomes a multi-billion-dollar oil field for his beneficiaries, most believers today go through life with undetected and therefore, non-withdrawn spiritual assets.
