

John 286

“John 18 Introduction”

John 18:1-3; Genesis 3:1-4

The Romans are looking for an insurrectionist, an anti-government rebel who's challenging Caesar's authority and the Jews are looking for a blaspheming Sabbath-breaker who just so happens to claim to be God, Israel's Messiah and the Savior of the world!

The difference between a pardonable and unpardonable sin is a difference of attitude toward the Lord Jesus Christ.

The difference between a pardonable and unpardonable sin is a difference of attitude toward the Lord Jesus Christ.

If you are a believer, you cannot commit an unpardonable sin but if you are an unbeliever, you're in an unpardonable state.

The difference between a pardonable and unpardonable sin is a difference of attitude toward the Lord Jesus Christ.

If you are a believer, you cannot commit an unpardonable sin but if you are an unbeliever, you're in an unpardonable state.

Judas is in Hell today, not for betraying the Lord Jesus but for denying His offer of salvation by grace alone through faith alone in Him alone.

The difference between a pardonable and unpardonable sin is a difference of attitude toward the Lord Jesus Christ.

If you are a believer, you cannot commit an unpardonable sin but if you are an unbeliever, you're in an unpardonable state.

Judas is in Hell today, not for betraying the Lord Jesus but for denying His offer of salvation by grace alone through faith alone in Him alone.

Our Lord's arresting party was made up of Romans and Jews which may seem insignificant to some but it's very significant to the Holy Spirit and our author, John.